

PRS for Music and PPL (Phonographic Performance Limited) are separate organisations who license different sets of rights in the use of music.

PPL collects and distributes money on behalf of performers and record companies for the use of their recorded music.

PRS for Music collects and distributes money on behalf of songwriters, composers and music publishers, for the use of their musical compositions and lyrics

They joined forces to set up PPL PRS Ltd, a joint venture combining the two societies' public performance licensing activities

Fitness Classes

Starts from...

88_p

A fitness instructor holding three classes every week for 50 weeks of the year in a village hall, community centre, or other similar premises could use music for £321 per year / 88p per day / £2.14 per class (+VAT)

PPL PRS Ltd launched the joint licence on 26 February 2018 and offers a single licence, called TheMusicLicence, on behalf of both PRS for Music and PPL, to play or perform music in public.
